TO : [REDACTED] Commanding Officer, Project [REDACTED]
SUBJECT : Delegation of Authority

25X1A2g

25X1C4e

1. Pursuant to your recent assignment as Commanding Officer at Project [REDACTED], you are authorized and directed to issue requisitions and advice to Reynolds Electric & Engineering Company as appear necessary, in line with my verbal instructions, to insure timely and successful operations of the Site. [REDACTED] Headquarters, in accordance with a memorandum of understanding, has issued sufficient instructions to their field locations and Contracting Officer to the effect that your requisitions will be authenticated and your instructions will be supported.

2. In connection with this delegation, you will comply with existing instructions and refer any questionable items to this Headquarters for advice prior to taking action. You are expected to establish such systems and processes as are necessary for the successful completion of the assignment with due attention given to monetary as well as property accountings.

3. A copy of this may be made available to REMCO if they desire.

4. This memorandum supercedes any previous correspondence on this subject.
